

[vc_row][vc_column][vc_single_image image="939" img_size="large" alignment="center"][/vc_column][vc_row][vc_row][vc_column]

Safety Toolbox Talks

Safety Toolbox Talks

Guarding Against Cold Stress

Randy Hall Nov 5, 2021

Don't let the cold slow you down With tight construction schedules anticipated this winter, contractors should plan to prepare for the challenges of working in cold weather. The importance of these dangerous conditions may not receive as much attention as preparing for hot weather work. Yet the dangers for injury, sickness, and even death are...

Read More...

Safety Toolbox Talks

How To Work Safely in the Heat

Randy Hall May 18, 2021

It's estimated that more than 10 million workers in the United States are affected by heat stress every year. But by paying attention to a few essential...

Read More...

Safety Toolbox Talks

How To Store Chemicals And Hazardous Materials

Randy Hall Nov 18, 2020

Proper Storage of Chemical and Hazardous Materials Many construction sites store chemical and hazardous materials onsite. Jobsites may house anything from...

Read More...

Safety Toolbox Talks

OSHA Compliance Quiz

Randy Hall Dec 3, 2019

Read More...

Safety Toolbox Talks

Night Construction Guidelines

Randy Hall Nov 20, 2019

Sometimes getting the job done means getting the job done at night. Not all construction jobs require night work, but when they do, it is important to be...

Read More...

Safety Toolbox Talks

Top 8 Causes Of Construction Fires

Randy Hall Oct 7, 2019

Top 8 Causes Of Construction Fires There are a variety of culprits of onsite construction fires, and many fires are preventable with proper precautions. The...

Read More...

Safety Toolbox Talks

6-Point Lockout/Tagout Action Plan

Randy Hall Aug 23, 2019

6-Point Lockout/Tagout Action Plan Lockout/Tagout procedures need to be implemented when it's time to repair or service equipment and machinery on a jobsite -...

Read More...

Safety Toolbox Talks

Is Your Job A Pain In The Neck?

Randy Hall May 16, 2019

Work Smart to Avoid Injuries Everyone knows about the big ticket injuries on construction sites: falls, electrocution, struck-by accidents, and caught in...

Read More...

Safety Toolbox Talks

Marking and Flagging Your Jobsite

Randy Hall Apr 19, 2019

Making Your Mark Jobsite safety involves being aware of potential hazards. In order for all of us to be aware, we need a heads up about things like moving or...

Read More...

Safety Toolbox Talks

Being Smart About HazMat Protection

Randy Hall Apr 10, 2019

Let's face it, most of us have chosen jobs that are downright dirty, and at times, even dangerous. Leaks, spills and splashes of toxic, and volatile...

Read More...

Safety Toolbox Talks

Labor Laws: Make Sure They Know

Randy Hall Apr 5, 2019

Are Your Posters In Compliance? You've seen them—big, bold posters composed of important information for workers. They highlight worker rights and no matter...

Read More...

Safety Toolbox Talks

Be Seen and Be Safe!

Randy Hall Mar 29, 2019

With no shortage of potential hazards on a construction site, worker safety is job one. One of the best ways to protect workers, especially those who work on...

Read More...

Safety Toolbox Talks

A Closer Look At Eye Protection

Randy Hall Mar 6, 2019

It goes without saying that eye protection on a construction site is a top priority. From the concrete worker on the ground to the sheet metal worker on the...

Read More...

Safety Toolbox Talks

First Aid Kits: Types and Classes

Randy Hall Feb 22, 2019

Is My First Aid Kit ANSI Compliant? On a construction site, being safe while getting the job done is always the number one priority. One of the easiest ways to...

Read More...

Safety Toolbox Talks

Leading Edge Work

Randy Hall Jan 20, 2019

What is Leading Edge work? Most contractors, even those not actively working at heights, are familiar with the term, but if you're not, let's start...

Read More...

Safety Toolbox Talks

Aerial Lift Safety Tips

Randy Hall Dec 14, 2018

The Ups and Downs of Aerial Lifts Mobile employee lift equipment is common on all construction sites. Contractors have discovered how these units can help...

Read More...

Safety Toolbox Talks

The Importance Of Hearing Protection

Randy Hall Nov 26, 2018

Hearing loss can cost contractors The Center for the Protection of Workers Rights recently launched a promotional program warning 2/3 of workers in the...

Read More...

Safety Toolbox Talks

How To Create A Fire Safety Plan

Randy Hall Oct 29, 2018

Do I Need A Fire Safety Plan? Jobsite fires are more common than you might think. Thousands of construction fires break out each year for a variety of reasons,...

Read More...

Safety Toolbox Talks

How To Choose And Use Slings

Randy Hall Oct 15, 2018

General Use of Different Types of Slings In this article we'll explore the different types of slings and which ones to use in various applications. If you're...

Read More...

Safety Toolbox Talks

Bloodborne Pathogen Safety Plan

Randy Hall Sep 17, 2018

When coworkers attempt to provide aid, it is not uncommon to be exposed to blood.

Read More...

Safety Toolbox Talks

Choosing The Right Work Gloves

Randy Hall Sep 11, 2018

Think gloves are gloves? Think again. It's an increasingly important safety consideration to know what level of protection is offered by the gloves your work...

Read More...

Safety Toolbox Talks

Jobsite Defibrillators Can Save Lives

Randy Hall Aug 27, 2018

Why You Need An Automated External Defibrillator (AED)

Read More...

Safety Toolbox Talks

How To Avoid OSHA Silica Dust Fines

Randy Hall Aug 9, 2018

OSHA is handing out some hefty fines OSHA is serious about reducing construction worker exposure to respirable dust. By the end of the first quarter of 2018,...

Read More...

Safety Toolbox Talks

Ladder Safety Tips for Pros

Randy Hall Aug 5, 2018

Ladder Safety Improper ladder use can lead to fatalities Unfortunately, one of the tools concrete contractors use most often can be the most dangerous....

Read More...

Safety Toolbox Talks

Preventing Fires on the Jobsite

Randy Hall Jun 27, 2018

Three Steps to Jobsite Fire Safety Contractors are responsible for developing fire prevention and fire protection programs on their job sites. While fires on...

Read More...

[/vc_column][vc_row][vc_row][vc_column]

Jobsite Safety

Jobsite Safety

Covid-19 Check-In Apps

Randy Hall Dec 8, 2020

Check-In Apps Are a Must On Today's Jobsites Despite the pandemic, many jobs must go on, and employers are continually looking for ways to keep workers safe and prevent the spread of COVID-19. A vital new tool in the contractor's 2020...

Personal Safety

Preparing For A Hurricane

Randy Hall Oct 1, 2019

Preparing for a Hurricane Recent hurricanes that have battered the gulf and eastern coastal states highlight the importance of preparedness - especially during hurricane season. They serve as reminders to get evacuation plans in place and...

Jobsite Safety

Silica Safety Fines Are Here

Randy Hall Jun 4, 2018

Not Silica Safety Compliant? Think enforcement of the September 2017 silica safety regulation isn't a high priority for workplace safety officials? Better think again. OSHA and state safety agencies are aggressively ramping up inspections...

Jobsite Safety

Scaffolding Safety On The Job

Randy Hall Apr 17, 2018

Sizing up scaffold safety Concrete repair is one of the fastest growing segments in the construction industry. Some experts believe this market will top $21 billion annually in a few years. Concrete contractors are understandably drawn to...

Jobsite Safety

Controlling Silica Dust

Randy Hall Apr 5, 2018

The Dangers of Silica Exposure What is silicosis? Silicosis is a disease of the lungs caused primarily by the breathing of dust containing crystalline silica particles. This dust can cause fibrosis or scar tissue formations in the lungs...

Personal Safety

Personal Protection on the Jobsite

Randy Hall Apr 2, 2018

Being smart about head protection Across the country, contractors paid more than $1.3 million in fines during 2016 for not complying with OSHA Section 1926.100 head protection guidelines. Section 1926.100 requires contractors to provide...

Jobsite Safety

How To Choose The Right Ladder

Randy Hall Oct 25, 2017

It's not just about how much you weigh by yourself. Be sure to think about who else will be using the ladder. When choosing a ladder make sure to include the weight of the items you'll be wearing as well as the things you'll be carrying up ...

[/vc_column][[/vc_row]